

Activity Worksheet in Work Breakdown Structure Dictionary Form

Project Name

Version

The WBS Activity Worksheet is made available to Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) to define the scope of work required for each activity and task within the work breakdown structure. For the entries made in this worksheet, accurate and activity and task descriptions can be compiled and tracked for variance during the course of a project.

Activity Worksheet in Work Breakdown Structure Dictionary Form
Task Identification
Task No.	Date Issued	Owner	Revision
High Level Task Description	Define the task
List Work / Activities	What work is authorized?
Goals & Objectives	Why is this work to be authorized?
Task Deliverables(s)	Define the end product, service or result.
Acceptance Criteria	What does "good" look like?
Assumptions	What is required to get the work done?
Skills / Resources Assigned	What kind of people and skills are required?
Materials Required
Task Duration	Estimated		Actual
Task Costs	Estimated		Actual
Due Date	Estimated		Actual
Task Inter-dependencies	Before Task
	After Task
Approved by	Project Manager		Date	